

(SRI B. B. SAYANAK)

(e) whether the Government is aware that the Secretary of the Education Society of that High School was and is running tuition classes in Belgaum, Sholapur and Tilakwadi ?

SRI K. V. SHANKARA GOWDA (Minister for Education).—

(a) Yes.

(b) From the academic year, 1970-71.

(c) Yes.

(d) To meet the educational needs of the locality, consequent on the abrupt closure of the existing school run by Janata Vikas Mandal.

(e) No.

SRI B. B. SAYANAK.—In answer to my question (c), it is stated as 'yes'. May I know why this special provision was made by the Government to start three standards at Anagol ?

† SRI K. V. SHANKARA GOWDA.—There was one school there, and that was suddenly closed. In order to facilitate the students who are studying there, we have given special permission to start three classes in the new school.

SRI B. B. SAYANAK.—The Secretary of this new school was a teacher of Janata Vikas Mandal and he is the culprit responsible for closing this school.

MR. SPEAKER.—It is not a happy expression

SRI K. V. SHANKARA GOWDA.—I am not aware of it.

SRI P. B. NANDIHALI.—First of all, I must thank the Department for giving permission to run standards VIII, IX and X. May I know whether there is any provision to take objection for running tuition classes by Secretary of any Education Society when he is not a teacher ?

SRI K. V. SHANKARA GOWDA.—The Secretary is not the teacher of that institution. Therefore, we cannot prohibit him from taking any class.

Complaints Against Headmaster, Tenkanakere School

89. SRI D. S. NADAKARNI (Ankola).—

Will the Minister for Education be pleased to state.—

(a) the reasons why an investigation has not been conducted against the Headmaster, Tenkanakere of Ankola Taluk, on complaints made to D. D. P. I., Dharwar and D. E. O. etc., alleging that the School Headmaster has indulged in group politics and lost all public sympathy and thereby the results of VII standard were far below average during the last year ; is it due to negligence of duty of higher authorities ;

(b) how and to whom the remainders of Mango trees were sold after the school reopened in May last ?

Sri K. V. SHANKARA GOWDA (Minister for Education).—

(a) Government is not aware of the complaints about the results of VII Standard in the year 1969. The higher authorities have also not received any complaints.

(b) Instructions were issued to utilise the pieces of roots of the auctioned mango tree, as far as possible, for preparation of Midday meals. The roots which could not be uprooted were permitted to be destroyed so as not to cause inconvenience to the Children while playing.

Sri D. S. NADKARNI.—As regards question No. 89, I have no Supplementaries.
